Did You Know...

The influence of plants can increase memory retention up to 20%, stimulating the senses and improving mental cognition and performance.

