

TECH TIP: IRON & MANGANESE TOXICITY IN GERANIUMS

Low pH got you down? Geraniums are one of those crops that can quickly push the potting mix pH below acceptable limits and cause iron/manganese toxicity. The initial symptoms are bronze spots on the lower leaves that can quickly lead to dead and dying plants.

Check the pH, use the correct fertilizer, and supplement with liquid limestone if needed.