

Tech Tip 2018

One size does not fit all... Dibble size is critical to ensure the root to stem contact needed for root development on vegetative cuttings. If you only have one dibble size available, consider backfilling with vermiculite or soil or a little pinch to close the gap.