Centaurea moschata 'Imperialis The Bride' is perfect for any wedding bouquet!

Tweedia coerulea 'Heavenly Blue'

Scabiosa atropurpurea 'Salmon Queen'

Wedding flowers- so many choices! How to decide what to grow to stay on today's trends?

Ball Seed/Ball Colorlink helps making decisions easy with The Wedding Blossoms Collection- colors and textures that today's bride is looking for!

- New Centaurea moschata 'Imperialis The Bride' has the largest flowers in its class presented on tall stems with a vanilla scent! The Bride also dyes well.
- Tweedia coerulea 'Heavenly Blue' is an improved selection with aquamarine flowers with a long flowering season.
- Scabiosa atropurpurea 'Salmon Queen' has been reselected for best performance with medium sized flowers on long stems providing unlimited design potential.
- Scabiosa atropurpurea 'Black Knight' is the deepest maroon- almost black with contrasting white stigmas. Spice up bouquets with a pop of dark color!
- Cynoglossum amabile 'Mystery Rose' is a favorite for resembling the traditional forget- me-not!
- Orlaya grandiflora 'White Lace' offers beautiful umbels of large white, lace like flowers make a gorgeous filler!
